NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

The Public Credit Will Not Suffer or Be Endangered.

SENATOR VOORHEES TALKS.

No Necessity For Prompt Action by Congress to Strengthen the Gold Reserve as Secretary Carlisle Has Already Sufficient Power to Act If an Issue of Bonds Is Necessary—Offers For New Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—A meeting of the senate finance committee was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering Secretary Carlisle's letter and bond bill. After the conclusion of the meeting Senator Voorhees, as chairman of the committee, handed to an Associated Press representative the statement given below. In making it he said he did not assume to represent the views of the entire committee, and yet he knew of no opposition in the committee to the opinions expressed. He submitted his statement to the full committee before giving it to the public. It is as follows:

"The embarrassed condition of the treasury and the necessity for prompt action for its relief are fully realized. There is not the slightest ground, however, for apprehension that the public credit will suffer or be endangered for the reason that ample authority already exists by law for the secretary of the treasury to strengthen his coin reserves to any extent required and to meet every demand that can be legitimate."

"The power of the secretary for the issue of bonds needs nothing beyond what is given by the act of Jan. 14, 1877. The only desirable object to be attained by new legislation at this time on that subject is to make a shorter time bond with a lower rate of interest, and yet the secretary feels assured that he can negotiate bonds issued under the act of 1875, running only 10 years on practically a 3-per cent basis."

"It seems, therefore, that it would be wiser, safer and better for the financial and business interests of the country to rely upon existing law with which to meet the present emergency rather than to encounter the delays and uncertainties always incident to protracted discussion in the two houses of congress. This view of the condition of the treasury admits of but little, if any, delay, and of no uncertainty at all in the final action to be taken."

"It would be trifling with a very grave affair to pretend that new legislation concerning the issue of bonds can be accomplished at this time, and in the midst of present elements and parties in public life, with elaborate, extensive and practically indefinite debate. It is also obvious to every one that the consideration and discussion of the tariff now going on in congress will render any financial legislation at this time far more difficult and complicated than it might be under another and circumstances."

"It is proper to say in this connection that the senate finance committee, for several weeks past, has had this subject under almost constant consideration and that the bill submitted by Mr. Carlisle has been examined and discussed with the greatest care."

"The interest of the committee will by no means be abated from this time forward. The fact that much remains to be done is fully recognized. Whatever deficiency in the revenues may exist during the current fiscal year will be promptly provided for by appropriate and efficient legislation at the earliest practicable moment."

The senate finance committee authorized Senator Voorhees to introduce the Carlisle bill in the senate and also to present the letter from the secretary of the treasury for the consideration of that body, which was done. This authorization as to the introduction of the bill is not intended to mean, however, that the committee has decided to make an effort to pass the bill through the senate, or that it has given it further endorsement, than to allow it to be printed and referred to the committee in the regular way for consideration.

AFTER NEW BONDS.

The Treasury Department Has Already Received a Number of Offers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Fifteen separate offers, aggregating $40,000,000, to take bonds, should Secretary Carlisle issue them, have been received at the treasury department. One offer to take a block of $25,000,000 was received from a New York firm. Another offer to take $175 was received from a mechanic.

No preparations, however, are being made at the treasury department for an immediate bond issue. Secretary Carlisle will await a reasonable time for congress to act, probably until Feb. 1, before he will proceed independently of congress, on the presumption that now that he has officially called the attention of congress to the urgent needs of the treasury it will act promptly. Until congress shows that it will not relieve the treasury, the secretary will not feel called upon, on his own responsibility, to issue bonds under the resumption act.

CONTRADICTING ORDERS.

They Cause a Railroad Wreck in Which Two Lives Are Lost and Others Injured.

SHAFTSBURY, Vt., Jan. 17.—The passenger train leaving Troy, N. Y., at 7:10 a. m., collided with the southbound wrecking train between Shaftsbury and South Shaftsbury, Vt., on the Bennington and Rutland railroad. The wrecking train was backing up at the rate of 35 miles an hour, but the passenger train had come to a standstill.

Engineer William Smith and Brakeman E. J. Mathson of Bennington died from the effects of their injuries shortly after being hurt. Harry Benson of West

Troy, express messenger of the northbound train, had two ribs broken. Four trainmen were seriously injured and Baggage master Ernest Whitbet was bruised about the head. It is said the accident was due to an incorrect order issued by the dispatcher at Bennington. He ordered the engineer of the wrecking train to meet the Troy train at South Shaftsbury, but ordered the engineer of the passenger train to meet the wrecking train at Shaftsbury.

DISTINGUISHED GATHERING.

Annual Meeting of the New York State Bar Association.

ALBANY, Jan. 17.—A distinguished body of men assembled in the state assembly chamber last night to attend the annual meeting of the State Bar association. Among those present were: Vice President Stevenson, United States Senator David B. Hill, United States Senator Dolph, ex-United States Senator Hiscock, Hon. E. L. Gerry, Hon. C. A. Collin, ex-State Senator Linson, Bishop and Regent William C. Doane, H. B. Hutchins, associate dean Cornell University law school; George Chase Dun, New York law school; Austin Abbott, dean law school University of New York; Abner C. Thomas, dean Metropolitan law school; Leroy Park, vice dean Buffalo law school.

A great many spectators, among them many ladies, were present on the floor and in the galleries. The meeting opened with prayer by the Rev. Edward G. Selden and then President Firo introduced the vice president of the United States, Hon. Adlai Stevenson. There was a burst of applause, and when it had ceased, Mr. Stevenson briefly addressed the meeting.

The speaker of the evening was Senator Joseph N. Dolph on the subject of "Law Reform."

At the conclusion of the meeting the majority of the members went to Governor Flower's reception. The vice president was the guest of Hon. David B. Hill while in the city. He left late last night for Washington.

VICTIMS OF THE FIRE FIEND.

A Mother and Her Two Daughters Perish in Their Own Dwelling.

BARBOURSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 17.—A disastrous fire occurred at Mills, a small village about 16 miles from this place, in Harlan county, about daybreak yesterday morning, in which three persons perished and a number of buildings were consumed.

The fire broke out in the store and residence of Frederick Houson, and the rear part of the building was so nearly consumed when the occupants were awakened that they were unable to escape with their lives.

Houson and his oldest son made their escape. Mrs. Houson could also have been saved, but for the fact that she attempted to awaken her two daughters, aged respectively 17 and 19, who occupied a small garret room overhead.

Several persons were badly burned later, as the fire spread. The loss is in the neighborhood of $25,000, with no insurance.

Mills is not a railroad town and is situated back in the Cumberland mountains over a way that is not often traversed and on that account the news of the disaster was not received here until this morning.

BIG STRIKE ORDERED.

Thousands of Miners Will Quit Work in the Pittsburgh District.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 17.—The joint convention of railroad and river men of the Pittsburgh district in session here adjourned late yesterday afternoon, after determining to order a strike of the pits at all the points working in both districts paying less than the 65-cent rate. The men will go out and remain idle pending the outcome of another convention of both districts which has been called for Monday next at 10 a. m., at Knights of Labor hall. Delegates from all of the pits will be present.

There are about 8,000 diggers in the railroad district and 6,000 in the river mines, half of whom are at work. Most of those are laboring for less than 65 cents and almost 8,000 men are, therefore, affected by the strike. At Monday's convention efforts will be made to consolidate both districts, steps toward that end have already been taken.

Explosion in a Tenement House.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—A 4-story brick tenement at One Hundred and Eighty-third Avenue C was badly wrecked yesterday afternoon by an explosion supposed to have been caused by an infernal machine. Several tenants were thrown down and bruised, but nobody was seriously injured. Fire followed the explosion, and was not extinguished before it had almost completed the work of destruction. Windows were blown out, partitions demolished and walls cracked. Some of the property in the building is alleged to have been insured far above its value.

Vandals in a Church.

OMAHA, Jan. 17.—It was discovered that during the night someone had broken into St. Agnes Catholic church, at South Omaha, smashed a fine piano and destroyed the chancel and altar rail with an ax, tore up the vestments of the choir boys and stole the communion service. This latter was valued at several hundred dollars. St. Agnes was one of the finest church edifices in the state, and the ruin wrought by the vandals will amount to upwards of $3,000.

A Wise Boniface.

The proprietor of a restaurant in Paris recently issued the following notice: "Being desirous of honoring the Russians, who are the country's guests, I have decided to change the name of this establishment, and by the use of a single apostrophe to transform it from the Cafe Divan into the Cafe d'Ivan."—Paris Figaro.

SENATOR GEO. GRAY.

He Is Likely to Be Appointed Supreme Justice

IN THE PLACE OF HORNBLOWER.

The President Anxious to Fill the Vacancy, and Those Who Claim to Know Say That the Delaware Senator Holds the Key to the Situation—Senator-Elect Lindsay of Kentucky a Candidate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The new justice of the United States supreme court will be named within a week. The rejection of Mr. Hornblower was anticipated by the president when the judiciary committee decided to report adversely upon the nomination. The president has urged senators frequently, within the past month, to act on the name one way or the other.

He pointed out that great constitutional questions are to be decided, and he said that if Mr. Hornblower was to be rejected he desired to fill the vacancy by appointing someone else with the least possible delay. He has, consequently, already made a selection, and that selection, as stated privately by Cleveland himself, is George Gray, senator from Delaware.

Mr. Gray is a man of marked legal ability and has had a thorough judicial training. If his nomination were sent to the senate any afternoon it could safely be predicted that he would be confirmed before night and could take his seat on the bench next day.

Mr. Gray holds the key to the situation. If he chooses to resign his legislative position for the exalted seat on the supreme bench he can have the nomination. If he declines the president will select someone else, but New York, it is said, will not get the place in any event, because the president has declared his belief that in the existing temper of the senate no New York man can hope for confirmation to a place outside of his own state.

Senator-Elect Lindsay a Candidate.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 17.—The failure of the senate to confirm the nomination of Judge Hornblower has caused some gossip here, to the effect that Senator William Lindsay of this city is in line for that position and is the agreed candidate. It is known here that Senator Lindsay is perhaps closer to Mr. Cleveland than any other man in the senate, and this, coupled with his reputation as a jurist, seems to lend color to the rumor.

MISSING MAN HEARD FROM.

He Writes to His Wife Telling Her of His Misfortunes.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 17.—Traces of R. C. Miller, financial reporter of Xenia lodge Knights of Pythias, Xenia, O., who disappeared recently with a portion of the order's funds, has been found in this city, and the police have been put at work on the case.

The clew comes from Xenia in the shape of a postal card mailed there Jan. 12, by Miller to his wife. The card stated that the writer, while at Buckles, O., was attacked by three men who struck him on the head and threw him into a freightcar unconscious, took from him his pocketbook containing all his money. The postal concluded with a pitiful appeal in behalf of his family.

Perished in a Burning Barn.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 17.—The barn of Absalom Ritter, a farmer near Rome, this county, burned during the night, and in the ruins the next morning the charred remains of an unknown man were found. Parts of the clothing and hair lead to suspect that the man was Isaac Edward, aged 33, of Blaine, Lawrence county, Ky., who worked for him last summer, and left for his home in December. Riddle heard recently that Edward had killed his wife since going home, and surmises that he escaped here and killed himself purposely or by accident in his barn. Twelve hundred bushels of coal, a large amount of hay, two horses and some farming implements were destroyed with the barn.

Daring Deed of Burglars.

ZANESVILLE, O., Jan. 17.—At an early hour yesterday morning three masked men entered the soap factory of Schultz & Company, overpowered Watchman Day, and after binding and gagging him threw him in a closet. The safe was then blown open and $3,800 in checks, $200 in money and a diamond ring were taken. The robbers then made their escape. One of their number was evidently familiar with the place and another must have been an experienced crackman, as they completed the work and were gone in an hour's time. Day managed to loosen his feet, fell out of a window and gave the alarm.

Negro Almost Lynched.

CAEDEN, N. J., Jan. 17.—An attempt to lynch a colored man was made at Seagull's mills. James I. Young, a negro, was recently put in the position made vacant by the discharge of a white man named Taylor. Taylor's friends became angry and demanded his reinstatement; upon being refused the crowd procured a rope and placed it around Young's neck. A number of men interfered and prevented the carrying out of the threats of the men. Young at once left the mills.

Bank Cashier Shot.

LEAD, S. D., Jan. 17.—Alexander Ross, cashier of the First National bank of this city, is an embezzler to the amount of $25,000. He admitted his guilt and is now behind the bars awaiting trial. In one hour after the defalcation was discovered the amount of shortage was deposited in money from personal funds of officers and stockholders, so the bank will not suffer inconvenience by the loss.

DEATH LIST SWELLING.

Several of the Wounded Can Not Recover.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The list of those who met death in Monday's collision on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad may be materially increased, as some of the injured in St. Mary's and Christ hospitals, Hoboken, are in such a critical condition that they are not expected to live.

Edward M. Clark, who is suffering from internal injuries, has had a succession of hemorrhages, and is not expected to live 24 hours.

Frank Schultz and Theodore White, who were reported dead, are also in a precarious condition. The former had a compound fracture of the right thigh and a terrible gash in the abdomen. It was found necessary to amputate his right leg and it is thought he can not survive the shock. Mr. White is suffering from a compound fracture of the leg and his left side is badly crushed. His injuries are so serious that his death at any moment would not be a surprise.

Among those whose injuries are of so grave a nature as to cause fears for their lives are William Barclift, E. W. Gray, Washington Irving and L. Roales. The others injured are doing well.

Who or what was responsible for the Hackensack bridge accident is the one thing which all concerned want to know.

President Samuel Sloan of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad has given out a statement about the accident. He blames Engineer David Hoffman of the South Orange train.

The particular rules, the violation of which caused the accident, were the ones which President Sloan was intently studying.

"There," said he impressively, laying his finger on one rule in particular, "if that had been followed out there would have been no accident."

The rule to which he referred read as follows:

"In case of foggy or stormy weather, the greatest care must be exercised, speed reduced around curves, passing stations, approaching bridges and approaching and passing through the different yards. Fault will not be found for being behind time when caution and prudence dictate that as the safe course."

"When I read that," he continued, "I can find no one to blame but Engineer Hoffman. His train should have been running very slowly and under control when he came up to the drawbridge."

BROKEN CONTRACTS.

The Amalgamated Association Threatens Recourse to Law.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 17.—The Amalgamated association is seriously considering the advisability of entering suits for damages against the iron and steel manufacturers who, it is alleged, have recently repudiated contracts with the association by insisting upon further reductions in wages of the workmen.

In speaking of the matter, President M. Garland of the Amalgamated association said that in view of the many broken contracts recently the association proposes to look carefully into the legality of such agreements. He said that if there are legal grounds for instituting action against manufacturers who have repudiated their agreements, proceedings will be ordered. He says damages will be asked for if possible.

Sunday Poker Players Injured.

WELLSVILLE, O., Jan. 17.—Four young men, named Robert, Aliback, Laninger and Kincaid, on Sunday, went to a quiet place on the hillside under an overhanging rock and after building a fire began the usual Sunday recreation of poker playing. About 4 o'clock the rock gave way and all four were caught beneath it. Both of Aliback's legs were broken at the thigh and his head was badly cut. He will die. Laninger was hurt internally and can not recover. Robert has a broken leg and was cut about the arms. Kincaid's arm was broken and he was cut about the body. The young men could not be rescued until the rock was broken into pieces.

Floating Frost Palace.

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 17.—The Dominion line steamer Labrador came up to the harbor presenting a striking appearance. Every bit of iron or wood on her surface was covered with ice. Chief Officer Skymaire reports a very rough passage and that they encountered a very heavy storm, during which the glass was remarkably low. They encountered an iceberg 50 miles to the eastward of Cape Race, and the steamer Toronto, Portland to Liverpool, off Cable, and the steamer Titania, Baltimore for Liverpool.

Negro Band of Highway Robbers.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 17.—Farmer Thomas Fitzgerald, living about 10 miles from this city, was set upon by three negroes yesterday evening. One of the trio fired at him with a revolver, instantly killing him. His body was then robbed. A companion named Link was wounded and also robbed. The negroes escaped. This is the fifth highway robbery perpetrated by negroes in the same neighborhood since Friday night, one of the victims being a deputy sheriff.

Dynamite Under the Stage.

ST. CATHERINE'S, Ont., Jan. 17.—A dynamite cartridge was found under the stage of the opera house in this city yesterday with a fuse attached. It is reported that the explosive was placed there during Mrs. Margaret L. Shepard's course of antipolymer lectures some months ago.

Good Prospect For Peaches.

MADISON, Ind., Jan. 17.—The great peach crop in southwestern Indiana is still uninjured, and a grower of experience says that the crop is killed oftener before than after Christmas. He claims that a warm, damp fall, followed by excessive cold, is necessary to blight the buds.

T. M. PEARCE.

County Attorney,

Sheriff,

J. C. EVERETT.

Assessor,

JOHN C. EVERETT.

Surveyor,

W. C. PELHAM.

Coroner,

JAMES C. OWENS.

Jailer,

H. C. KIRK.

Generally cloudy weather, with light snow or rain near the lakes; winds shifting to southeast.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON appears to feel called upon in all his public utterances of late to lug in something about lynchings in the South. Maybe he will hold off, though, for awhile, now that the colored folks conducted one recently in that quarter, and one has been held almost at his own door in the North.

GREAT is the Republican bounty system. An exchange remarks that "ten times more Vermont maple sugar is annually sold in this county now than Vermont has been able to produce in all the days since the battle of Bennington." The McKinley act placing a bounty of 2 cents a pound upon this kind of sugar is a wonderful law. It has no doubt resulted in the starting of "maple sugar camps" right in the heart of the biggest cities in the land.

"MARK my words. Just as soon as this bill is passed, every loom in the country will be started, every furnace fire will be lighted, and every instrument of production will be put in active operation, and there will be witnessed a revival of prosperity such as this country has never before seen. Give this country free wool, free ores, free coal and free raw material for the workingmen's industry, and we will take a front position in the markets of the world."—Extract from Congressman Springer's speech on the tariff.

GOVERNMENT officers at Buffalo have arrested Major W. Bowen Moore, the most prominent pension agent in the State outside of New York City; his son, Alfred B. Moore, and three clerks in his office, all charged with forgery and securing false affidavits. According to Special Agent Ayre's statement Moore has fraudulently secured for pensioners about $1,000,000. Since 1889 he has secured over 6,000 claims, of which at least 4,500 are alleged to be fraudulent. In the cases investigated so far it has been shown that $150,000 has been wrongfully obtained, either by forgery or plain fraud.

ONE of the serpents writhing and wriggling under the assaults of the Wilson bill is the sugar trust, says the Georgetown (O.) News Democrat. The sugar trust can pay 25 per cent. dividends on $2,000,000—of which $72,000,000 is water. Of course this trust needs "protection," and the American people ought to be taxed to afford it. That is what the Republican party says, and that is what every man says who votes the ticket of that party. Recollect that the actual capital of this trust is but $10,000,000—the remainder of the $82,000,000 being wind which didn't cost its organizers a cent, and which has been loaded on a guileless public. All bucketshop schemes of that character ought to be protected, of course. That is what McKinley and his Republican friends say.

CARNEGIE in a recent interview said: "I do not presume to speak for the manufacturers of the United States, but I know I speak for some of them when I respectfully urge that it would be infinitely better to have a moderately satisfactory bill passed by the Democratic party than even a more satisfactory bill passed by the Republican party." And again in the same talk he added: "I submit that it is far better to obtain a moderate Democratic tariff bill securing its stability and permanence satisfactory to all, rather than a high protective bill passed by the Republican party and certain to be the object of continual political attack."

The expression of these sentiments by this big manufacturer fell like a bombshell in the Republican camp and it's amusing to see how the G. O. P. editors are now jumping on to Carnegie. Some of them even want him driven out of the country.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics reports that the total imports of merchandise during the fiscal year 1893 were valued at $866,400,922, of which $421,856,711 was dutiable and $444,544,211 free. The imports of merchandise in the fiscal year 1892 were valued at $827,402,462, of which $369,402,804 was dutiable and $457,999,658 free.

The exports of merchandise in 1893 were valued at $847,065,194, and in 1892 at $1,030,278,148.

It will be seen that exports fell off under the McKinley bill.

IF Federal offices were apportioned among the States according to population Kentucky would get 442, whereas she now has only 205. Let that "pie" be passed again. The boys are hungry.

ROBERT M. SHEARER, of Cincinnati, has invented a solder with the aid of which aluminum can be welded together in a joint tougher than the body of the metal itself, so that when tested under a severe strain the pure metal will succumb before the solder shows the slightest sign of weakness. The invention is of interest to metal-workers the world over, and will be the means of bringing into general use, on a scale heretofore undreamed of, that wonderful product, aluminum.

By Mr. Johnson, an act to prevent the organization or continuance of clubs, companies, or associations, whose purposes are to regulate, raise, or keep higher than the regular market price, the price of any article, in any line of business, or to discriminate in trade against any person or class of persons. The Tingley bill to create the office of Dairy and Food Commissioner was killed.

A resolution was offered in the House stating that inasmuch as the official and clerical force in the Auditor's office now costs the State $13,500 per annum, and as a bill is now pending to increase the same to $20,000, the Auditor be requested to report to the House a list of the clerks and the salaries now paid, and to state the necessity for more. It was adopted.

The Committee on Agriculture and Manufactures reported favorably the bill regulating the standard of weights and measures in grain, coal etc.

The Committee on Municipalities will report favorably a bill allowing fourth-class towns to extend their jurisdiction a half mile from the present limits.

Another important measure now pending is a bill which provides that instead of being looked after by the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners the management of the penitentiary shall be intrusted to a board of three commissioners to be appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. They shall hold office for four years and shall be authorized to lease the labor of the prison for a like number of years. The salary of the commissioners is to be $2,000 each and traveling expenses not exceeding $500 is allowed.

IN A DREAM.

William Warfield, a Prominent Breeder, Saw His Shorthorns Burning Many Miles Away.

William Warfield, one of the most famous breeders of high priced shorthorn cattle, on the night of the fire which recently destroyed his barn and shorthorns near Lexington, was at the New York Hotel, in Gotham, with his wife and son. At 11 o'clock he was awakened from his sleep by a hideous nightmare, which left him in great excitement. He exclaimed to Mrs. Warfield: "My barn is on fire and all my stock is being consumed, except two young heifers. I see the flames—the whole scene is before me."

She soothed him as best she could, insisting that it was only a dream. Next morning they were discussing the vivid dream and its terrible hold on the imagination, when the son came in with a telegram and said: "Father, I have bad news for you." "I know what it is," exclaimed Mr. Warfield, "my barn and stock is burned."

It was true, but young Warfield said: "Your dream is not all true; every thing is gone, and you dreamed that two head of stock were saved." When they got home they found that the two young heifers had escaped destruction, as his dream had pictured.

Mr. Warfield is a man of character and probity, a strict Presbyterian, and all who know him accept his story without question. He has no theory to offer for it, says a special.

A BIG CROP OF TOBACCO.

Leslie Combs, of Fayette County, Raised $50,000 Worth of the Weed Last Year.

"The largest crop of tobacco ever raised in Fayette County," says the Lexington Transcript, "is that now being stripped and pruned by Mr. Leslie Combs. It compromised 370 acres. The land was new and strong, so that the rather dry season did not injure the crop, but tended to make the tobacco finer and of better quality than if there had been more rainfall."

"As it is, the first hogshead of extra fine leaf sold by Mr. Combs brought $19 per hundred, which is considered an extra price."

"As a whole the tobacco raised by Mr. Combs was a good medium crop, and the total yield will be something like 500,000 pounds, which, at the low average of 10 cents per pound, will amount to $50,000. This is the most valuable single crop of any kind raised in Fayette County for many years."

GEO. W. SULSER, law, fire insurance.

DR. ROSENTHOL, a Cincinnati dentist, wants the Ohio Legislature to pass a law prohibiting the Jewish rite of circumcision, on the ground that the operation is cruel and unnecessary, and that it is a relic of barbarism not compatible with the civilization of to-day. The doctor holds that no religion can promote such cruelty to infants and hope to be protected in it by the law. He proposes a severe penalty for the performance of the rite, the violator to be prosecuted under the section prohibiting cruelty to children. It is doubtful whether the doctor will be able to get any statesman to father the measure, says the Enquirer.

THE WAR IN HONDURAS.

The Invaders Ask Salvador For Aid but Are Refused.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—A Herald dispatcher from La Libertad, Salvador, Jan. 16, says: The latest dispatches received here from the seat of war in Honduras convey the information that President Vasquez defeated a body of the invaders, who were under the command of General Manuel Bonilla, at Apacalagua.

General Ortez, who is chief in command of the invading forces, has requested of General Antonio Ezeta, Salvador's assistance in the fight.

General Ezeta, who is fully authorized to answer from Salvador, refuses to lend aid to the invaders of Honduras and declares Salvador will maintain a strict neutrality, but would be willing to act the part of a peacemaker if invited.

General Ezeta has gone to La Union to inaugurate the work on the San Miguel railway.

Wonderful Mirage.

QUINCY, Ills., Jan. 17.—The heavy fog of the last few days has impaired the telegraph and telephone service and yesterday ended with the most wonderful mirage ever seen. The fog formed a dense bank over the Mississippi, and on the underside could plainly be seen all the street buildings and chimneys of the factory district with vivid fidelity, and the effect was exactly that of a second Quincy lying complete on the opposite bank of the river. The beautiful illusion was witnessed by thousands, and lasted for about an hour.

Miners' Strike Growing Serious.

FINLEYVILLE, Pa., Jan. 17.—The miners at the Florsheim mines, who struck Monday to secure the 75 per cent rate, are threatening trouble. The sheriff, who was called there by the mine owners in anticipation of trouble, found nothing that would warrant his interference. There is a turbulent element digging coal in that section, however, and the operators fear damages to the mining properties, which are closely guarded.

Biggest Offer Yet For the Fight.

HELENA, Mon., Jan. 17.—Leading Montana sporting men, believing the Corbett-Mitchell prize fight can not be pulled off in Florida, are out with a bid. At a meeting of several wealthy stock growers, it was decided to offer a herd of 3,000 range cattle, worth $80 a head, to have the fight in Helena. No danger of interference from officers. Inside of three years the band of cattle would be worth $250,000.

Cutting Down Miners' Wages.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 17.—There was a meeting of the operators of the Massillon coal district yesterday at the Weddel House. It was decided to submit a proposition to miners to cut the wages of miners from 20 to 25 per cent in order to meet the cut in wages of Pittsburgh miners.

In the house of the Colorado legislature a bill was introduced authorizing the governor to present a bar of bullion at the United States mint for coinage, and appropriating money to carry the case through the courts if the government refuses to coin the silver.

Old Man Murdered For His Money.

EUREKA SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 17.—It is supposed that murder has been done about a mile from this city by a man about 25 years old, the victim being an old man. The two passed through the city last week and camped near the limits. They disappeared, leaving their horses and wagon, and on investigation, the police found that the old man was G. F. BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 17.—The following advices have been received from Rio Janeiro.

It is rumored that numerous members of the national guard are deserting.

The insurgent fleet continues its bombardment. Many shells fall in the center of the city and several persons have been killed, including some Italians. When the Italian minister became acquainted with this fact he demanded reparation from the government. He was informed, however, that as the foreign residents had been warned of the danger of remaining in the city the government could accept no responsibility for anything that might befall them.

The government forts and batteries are bombarding the insurgent storehouses on Enchadas island.

PAYING PENSIONS IN BONDS.

A Novel Proposition Will Probably Soon Be Made to Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Representative Sibley (Dem., Pa.) has prepared a bill to pay pensions in a new issue of 2 per cent bonds. He proposed to offer it to the house in case a bill is presented for a general issue of bonds.

His plan is to make the bonds in denominations of $20 up to $100, and to make them legal tender, except for customs dues. This would allow them to circulate as paper currency.

His plan contemplates the issue of such bonds until the amount reaches $50 per capita for the population of the country. Mr. Sibley intends to suggest his plan to Secretary Carlisle, and in any event to offer it as an amendment to the general bond proposition if one comes before the house.

"You know that pretty little governess of ours?"

"Well? Your wife caught you kissing her, I suppose?"

"No. She caught me kissing my wife, confound it!"—Judy.

An Unwelcome Visitor.

Word has been sent to the courts of Europe that the shah of Persia intends to visit Berlin, St. Petersburg, Paris and Vienna next spring. He will start on his journey in May or June and will remain in Europe several months. The rulers whom he is to honor are in an unhappy state of mind already on account of the proposed visit. No living sovereign, in all probability, is a more unwelcome guest than the shah, but his cousins in Europe are obliged to receive him with all the honors due to his rank. Entertaining him is more expensive than entertaining any other monarch. His retinue is almost a legion.—Berlin Correspondent.

Can Steer This Balloon.

An important series of experiments at the military balloon school of instruction near Chatham is approaching completion. The utmost secrecy is maintained, but it is reported that Major Temple has at length found an aerial steering apparatus which he relies upon to act satisfactorily in all conditions of weather, except an actual storm.—London Letter.

Must Get a New Mantle.

Several European sovereigns are renowned for the length of time which they wear their clothes. The record in this respect, however, is broken by the rector of the Berlin university, who has just been compelled to order a new official mantle at a cost of 2,400 marks. The one which he has worn until now was made exactly 100 years ago.—Berlin Gazette.

An Indian's Diplomacy.

I heard a good story of a celebrated Indian potentate who took an English peer, who was staying with him, out shooting. Truth to tell, the peer shot very badly, and the eastern prince was sorely puzzled to combine oriental compliment and empty gamebags. At last, with a low bow, he said, "Your excellency shot splendidly, but God was very merciful to the little birds!"—London Gentlewoman.

A LONG WALK.

A Penniless Family Passes Through Chicago on a Six Hundred Mile Tramp.

W. H. H. Rhodes, 54 years old and determined; Mrs. Lydia Ann Packers, 44 years old, a sister of Mr. Rhodes and having considerable of his energy; Louis L. Rhodes, 12 years old, and Ira Irwin Rhodes, 10 years old, tired and hungry, completed half of a 600 mile walk Wednesday night and slept for the first time in three weeks in a warm place.

Rhodes, his two sons and sister are on the way to Cameron county, Wis., and left Dayton, O., Dec. 5. They reached Englewood about 6 o'clock last evening and were directed to the police station, where they were given supper and lodgings. Rhodes told an interesting story. "I was engaged in a little business in Cameron county, Wis., he said. "In July I got a letter from a brother whom I had not seen in 24 years, in which he urged me to come to Dayton, O. He told me that I would find employment there and that he would assist me. When I got there, he told me he wrote the letter because he wanted to see me. I couldn't do anything there, and if I wanted to starve I would rather do it among friends than strangers, and so I decided to come back. My sister's husband having died, she was alone and wanted to come with me. I hadn't any money, so we decided to walk. We left Dayton Dec. 5 and have walked every step of the 300 miles. Two nights we were without fire, and only four nights have we slept in houses. We make from 10 to 16 miles a day and hope to get to our destination next month. So far we get money, and at South Englewood $2.50 was raised for us. I can make money in Wisconsin, and my sister will keep house for me."

The family started out early Thursday morning on the tramp of the other 800 miles.—Chicago Letter.

NEW FIGHTING MACHINES.

Automatic Iron Soldiers That Can Shoot Forty Times a Minute.

A fighting machine or automaton soldier is the last work up to now of civilization. Nobody in future need risk his life in battle—that is, if a newspaper of Barcelona is not misinformed as to the merits of a new invention. According to that journal, the inventor has offered it to the Spanish government for use against the Moors in Melilla. He is ready, for a sum of £200,000 sterling, to proceed to the seat of operations at the head of 100 of the new combatants.

The machine soldier is made of iron, and he is set going by clockwork. When wound up, he can fire 40 rounds a minute, and he carries in his interior a large supply of ammunition. Should he be captured by the enemy, he can be blown to pieces by means of an electric discharge acting upon a quantity of dynamite stored in his head.

The paper seriously declares that the capabilities of the new warrior have been successfully tested before a committee of experts.

Whistles In Sword Hilt.

The new tactics adopted for the army contemplate the giving of commands by whistle under certain circumstances, instead of by word of mouth. Consequently infantry officers have received a intimation from the acting chief of ordnance that they are expected to provide themselves with whistles at their own cost. The order says:

"The major general commanding the army, having approved the introduction of a whistle in the cross piece of the guard of the sword for infantry officers, desires to inform you that the commanding officers of Springfield armory and Rock Island arsenal have been instructed to make this alteration as promptly as possible upon the receipt of the arms. The cost, which will be paid by the owner of the sword, will be about $3.75 each for lots of 50 or more, but the expense will necessarily be greater where work is conducted on but few swords at a time."—Washington Cor. Buffalo Courier.

Train Robber Perry In a Madhouse.

Oliver Curtis Perry, the notorious train robber, was a passenger recently on the Central train from the west. He was on his way from Auburn prison to the asylum for insane criminals at Matewan. He was chained hand and foot, and three burly officers guarded him. Everybody about the depot hastened into the smoking car to catch a glimpse of the daring desperado whose exploits are still fresh in the minds of all. The prison officials have, it is said, considered Perry insane for some time. He has given a good deal of trouble at Auburn and has been subjected to severe discipline there. He appeared quiet enough on the train.—Utica Press.

Where the Money Went.

When the Midway pleasure people were leaving Chicago, bankers were kept busy for quite a while in changing $1,000,000 or more, which they carried away as the result of a summer's industry, into the coin of other realms. A donkey boy from Cairo street unrolled a tattered cloth containing $700 in silver, for which he wished French francs, while a camel driver had a clear $1,000. An Arab, a Turk, a Nubian soldier and an elderly Egyptian followed, and a Persian dancer had a little fortune of $1,500 in silver.—New York Ledger.

Exhibited the Remains.

In Philadelphia the other day there was a striking evidence of the intense desire of some people to "exhibit the remains" at funerals. A man had died of diphtheria, and the authorities very properly refused to permit a public funeral. So the family had the coffin containing the corpse stood on end in front of a window of the house, so that the face of the dead could be viewed from the street.—Philadelphia Letter.

Sunflower Newspapers.

The paper mill at this place has made from sunflower stalks several tons of paper which will be sent to experts in the east. The paper is regarded as superior to straw paper. The mill is now buying sunflowers. Last evening The Daily Republican ran its entire edition on the sunflower paper.

CEDARVILLE, O., Jan. 17.—Tom Johnson, a farmer's son, was shot in the lower left breast by L. Cooney, at a dance at Dove Hower's, south of town. The bullet was extracted from his back, but left him in a critical condition. Blood poisoning is feared. The trouble was caused by jealousy over a young lady.

The paper seriously declares that the capabilities of the new warrior have been successfully tested before a committee of experts.

Whistles In Sword Hilt.

The now tactics adopted for the army contemplate the giving of commands by whistle under certain circumstances, instead of by word of mouth. Consequently infantry officers have received a intimation from the acting chief of ordnance that they are expected to provide themselves with whistles at their own cost. The order says:

"The major general commanding the army, having approved the introduction of a whistle in the cross piece of the guard of the sword for infantry officers, desires to inform you that the commanding officers of Springfield armory and Rock Island arsenal have been instructed to make this alteration as promptly as possible upon the receipt of the arms. The cost, which will be paid by the owner of the sword, will be about $3.75 each for lots of 50 or more, but the expense will necessarily be greater where work is conducted on but few swords at a time."—Washington Cor. Buffalo Courier.
